IMPROVEMENT IN B.&O.S.-W. SERVICE

Announcement Made That Trains
Will be Run Saturday From St.
Louis to Lawrenceburg.

FREIGHT SERVICE RESUMED

Passengers and Baggage for Cincinnati
Will be Transferred Across
Ohio River in Boats.

Superintendent J. C. Hagerty of the Indiana division of the B. & O. Southwestern made the announcement today that train service would be resumed Saturday from Lawrenceburg to St. Louis. The temporary trestle at Medora has been declared safe for traffic and the track has also been repaired, so that trains may be operated. A temporary trestle has also been built across Blue Hole on the west fork of White River near Washington. This track gave way under the weight of an engine and four trainmen were drowned.

According to the circular issued, trains Nos. 1 and 2 will be operated daily between Lawrenceburg and St. Louis, making stops only as shown on the schedule. These trains will handle mail cars but no express will be carried for a few days. Passengers for Cincinnati will be received on these trains, arrangements having been made to transfer passengers and baggage from Lawrenceburg to Main street by boat. No. 1 will leave Lawrenceburg at 11:30 a. m. and No. 2 will leave St. Louis at 9 a. m. While it is impossible for them to run on the former regular schedule, they will be expected to make as good time as possible.

East bound train No. 4 will leave Vincennes daily at 6:03 a. m., arriving at North Vernon at 9:40 a. m. This train is expected to arrive at Seymour at 9:08 a. m. o'clock. The train will return to Vincennes from North Vernon as No. 7, departing from North Vernon at 10:30 a. m. Nos. 4 and 7 will not handle mail cars. Several trains will also be operated on the branch road between North Vernon and Louisville, beginning Saturday.

Effective Monday, April 21st, and continuing until further notice, trains Nos. 3 and 12 will be operated between Cincinnati and St. Louis and will be handled over the L. & N. rails between Cincinnati and Louisville. From the latter place they will use the Louisville division to North Vernon and the mainline from North Vernon to St. Louis. They will be operated with the regular equipment and will make schedule stops only.

Superintendent Hagerty also announced today that local freight service would be resumed tomorrow between Lawrenceburg and Washington. Local freights will also be operated on the Illinois division between Washington and St. Louis. It is also stated that through freight service will be resumed between Lawrenceburg and Washington over the Indiana division and from Washington to St. Louis over the Illinois division.

With the resumption of this schedule, Seymour will be afforded improved passenger and freight service to the east and west. Up to this time trains have been operated only between Lawrenceburg and Vallonia and between Medora and Washington, the latter train having been put on this week. Several hundred men are still at work on the B. & O. Southwestern repairing the track, so that better time can be maintained.

PRESIDENT OF HANOVER WILL HEAD PRESBYTERY

Rev. W. A. Millis Chosen Moderator of New Albany District to Succeed
Rev. C. I. Truby.

The Rev. W. A. Millis, president of Hanover college, has been chosen moderator of the New Albany Presbytery, to succeed the Rev. C. I. Truby. J. T. Boyer and E. C. Lucas, ministers, and Joseph Weatherford and J. W. Wolford, elders, were named as delegates to the general assembly to be held in Atlanta, Ga. Much attention was paid to missionary work. The Presbytery accepted the invitation from the town of Elizabeth to hold its fall meeting there.

Baptist Meetings.

There were five additions to the close of the service at the First Baptist church last evening. Evangelist Watkins preached another strong sermon urging the necessity of absolute separation from everything worldly in order to live the Christian life. There is no compromise with God. He has outlined the plan of salvation and offers it freely to every man who will accept it. But there is no other way except God's plan by which men can be saved.

There will be preaching again tonight by Evangelist Watkins at 7:30 o'clock, to which all are invited.

Child Dead.

Raymond, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Machino, died Friday morning at 3:30 o'clock at the home two miles east of the city, with the measles. The funeral services will be held Sunday from the residence at 2 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. H. R. Boech. Burial at Riverview cemetery.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank all our neighbors and friends for their many kind acts and for their sympathy and assistance during the illness and at the death and burial of our wife and mother, Mrs. Anna C. Jones. Their kindness will always be appreciated. H. B. Jones and Children.

Additional local news will be found on pages two and three of this issue. The story will be found on page seven. On every page of the Republican this afternoon are advertisements of the local merchants and dealers. These advertisements furnish valuable information to customers and can be used to an advantage in making purchases.

PROVISION MADE FOR NEW COURSES

Vocational Education in Trades, Agriculture and Domestic Science
May Be Given in Schools.

COUNTY MAY HAVE AN AGENT

State Shall Pay Two-thirds of the Expense of Instruction Approved
By the State Board.

House Bill 101 (Chapter 24), approved February 22, provides "for the encouragement, maintenance and supervision of vocational education in industries, agriculture and domestic science." It defines "vocational education" as meaning "any education, the controlling purpose of which is to fit for profitable employment." "Industrial education" is defined to mean "that form of vocational education which fits for the trades, crafts and wage-earning pursuits, including the occupation of girls and women carried on in stores, workshops and other establishments." "Agricultural education" is defined as "that form of vocational education which fits for the tillage of the soil, the care of domestic animals, forestry and other wage-earning or productive work on the farm." "Domestic science" is defined as "that form of vocational education which fits for occupations connected with the household." Any school city, town or township is authorized to establish vocational schools or departments for industrial, agricultural and domestic science, and to maintain them by a tax of not more than 10 cents on each $100. Elementary instruction in these subjects may be included as part of the regular course of instruction. Classes in these subjects may be conducted in the evening for persons employed in the daytime, and "part time" classes in the day for persons who are employed "part of their working time."

Students in special vocational schools and departments shall be over fourteen and under twenty-five years of age; in evening classes over seven years of age. Two or more school corporations may cooperate to establish and maintain vocational schools or departments and apportion the cost. Elementary agriculture shall be taught in the grades in all town and township schools; elementary industrial work in the grades in all city and town schools, and elementary domestic science in the grades in all schools. Although the title of the act mentions only "the encouragement, maintenance and supervision of vocational education," a section of the bill assumes to enact a substitute for Burns, 1908, Section 6309, which provided how the state board of education should be constituted. Section 7 reads substantially like the old section (which was part of the law "to provide for a system of common schools") with the insertion of one clause and the addition of another. The insertion provides that the Governor shall appoint three additional members of the state board of education, who shall be "persons actively interested in, and of known sympathy with, vocational education, one of whom shall be a representative of employers and one of employees," etc. The addition is that "the board shall have all the powers and perform all the duties now imposed by law on the state board of education."

A deputy of the state superintendent, appointed with the advice and approval of the state board of education, at a salary and for a term to be fixed by the board, shall have direct charge of industrial and domestic science education. He may also

DIGON IS TAKING HIS TIME TO NAME NEXT POSTMASTER

Nothing New Has Developed in the Fight, but Each Candidate
Claims the Plum.

There are no new developments in the postoffice fight in this city, and so far as the public knows Congressman Dixon has given out no information as to how it will be decided. The friends of the various candidates declare that they feel assured that their choice will land the plum, but just why all of them have reasons to feel so confident of success is hard to explain.

Those who believe they are "inside" of the situation have held several conferences with Congressman Dixon regarding the fight, and after their return from each trip say that their candidate will be selected. It is said that the fight here is one of the most bitter Congressman Dixon has to contend with in his district and for that reason he has postponed the selection until later, hoping that the contestants will come to some agreement among themselves. Those who are interested in the fight, however, declare that this is out of the question and that none of the aspirants will withdraw from the race.

There is plenty of time to make the appointment as the term of the present postmaster does not expire for about a year, and there is every reason to believe that the appointment will not be made for some time. There was some talk of holding an election or primary, and allow the people to select their postmaster, but it is understood that some of the candidates would not agree to this.

PEOPLE AT LAWRENCEBURG IN GREAT NEED OF HELP

School Superintendent Says Newspapers Have not Given Real Stories of Distress.

In answer to a letter written by Superintendent J. A. Linke, of the public schools, regarding the situation at Lawrenceburg, the superintendent of the school there has replied that the people are in great distress and that many of them are not only homeless but without any means of support. He said that the newspapers had not given the real stories of distress and suffering experienced by the people at that place. Practically every house in the town was flooded and many of them were washed away and completely wrecked. A number of families lost everything they owned and as the factories are not in operation they are without means of support.

The charity organization desires to place the money of the local relief fund where it will do the most good and have written to a number of places in this section to inquire about conditions. The Ft. Ritner flood sufferers are being cared for by the people of Bedford, but it is said that they also need more money. The charity organization will probably send part of the money to Ft. Ritner and will also help those in need at Lawrenceburg.

A dispatch from Indianapolis says that John G. Offett, of Delphi, has been arrested there as a fugitive. He formerly lived in this county and until recently was engaged in the real estate business at Delphi. Some time ago he purchased a farm in Texas and intended to go to that state to inspect it. It is not known upon what charge he is wanted at Delphi, although it is said to relate to a real estate transaction.

CORONER SEEKS CAUSE OF WRECK

Young Fireman, Left in Charge of Pennsylvania Freight Engine, Testifies.

HIS FIRST TRIP OVER ROAD

Denies That He Received Signal to Stop And Said He Did Not Know of Derailing Device.

An investigation is being made by Coroner Durham, of Marion county, of the wreck which occurred on the Pennsylvania railroad at Indianapolis Wednesday night when a northbound passenger train crashed into the engine of a freight train which had become derailed at the Southern avenue crossing. John Yunker, engineer of the passenger train, was killed, and two others were seriously injured. John T. Wilson, the mail clerk, formerly of this city, was hurt, but was able to return to his home in Louisville Thursday.

The wreck delayed traffic for several hours Thursday, but the track was cleared about noon and all the trains are running on schedule time today. The accident happened in a deep cut and the wrecking crew could not throw the cars to the side, but were compelled to pull them some distance down the track. This caused a longer delay than if the wreck had occurred where the adjoining ground was level with the rails.

Coroner Durham has summoned all the witnesses available for the hearing which will likely be completed this afternoon. He intends to make a thorough investigation. He has not said who would be held responsible.

Homar E. Brumbach, the 18-year-old fireman on the freight train, who was making his first trip over the road and who was left in charge of the engine when it was blocking the main track and was derailed, was a witness. He said he had been in the service only five months and that he was making his first trip over the road the night the accident occurred.

Brumbach explained his share in the accident when he said that when the engineman left him in charge and told him to pull ahead for some distance, he thought he was on the main track and not on a switch. He said he did not know of a derailing device in the track and was not told of it. He said that, although he ran slowly, he was on the derail before he was aware of its existence and was over it with part of the engine before he could stop.

His testimony was that he attempted to back the engine on the track, but was unsuccessful. He said that after he had made one attempt he looked ahead and saw the passenger train approaching. He had no time to flag the train, he said, and jumped for safety.

Brumbach estimated the time between the derailing of the engine which he was driving and the time the passenger engine struck at twenty seconds. None of the other members of the freight train crew estimated it at less than one minute. Brumbach said he received no signal to stop. A

SEARCH STILL CONTINUED FOR BODIES OF FOUR MEN

B. & O. Southwestern Making Effort to Locate Them at Blue Hole, White River.

The B. & O. Southwestern Railroad officials have not abandoned hope of finding the bodies of the four men who were drowned in Blue Hole, White River, near Washington, when an engine fell through a trestle.

Six men have been in the employ of the company ever since the accident occurred searching for the dead, and they are still on duty. Drifts are being torn to pieces in the search for the missing bodies, and search is being made along the river for miles down the stream, but as yet no trace of the bodies has been found. Maybe they never will be found, but if such be the case, it will not be because of lack of effort on the part of the B. & O. Southwestern Company, or the men in its employ.

NOTICE ISSUED OF CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION HERE

Will be Given to Applicants for Clerk and Carrier—Age Limit
18 to 45.

Announcement has been made that a civil service examination will be held in this city on May 10, for clerk and carrier for the local post office.

The notice issued is as follows: An examination for clerk and carrier will be held at the post office in this city on May 10, 1913.

Age limit, 18 to 45 years on the date of the examination.

Married women will not be admitted to the examination. This prohibition, however, does not apply to women who are divorced or those who are separated from their husbands and support themselves, but they are eligible for appointment only as clerk.

Applicants must be physically sound, and male applicants must be not less than 5 feet 4 inches in height in bare feet, and weigh not less than 125 pounds without overcoat or hat.

For application blanks and for full information relative to the examination, qualifications, duties, salaries, vacations, promotions, etc., address immediately serve as an assistant at Purdue University. Under a scheme to be approved by the state board, local school officials administering vocational schools and departments shall "appoint an advisory committee representing local trades, industries and occupations," which shall counsel with and advise the school officials.

PROVISION MADE FOR NEW COURSES

Persons in a school corporation without vocational schools or departments may be transferred to another municipality which has them, if the state board will permit such transfer after a consideration of "all relevant circumstances." Youths between the ages of fourteen and sixteen years who are regularly employed may be required to attend "part time" classes at least five hours per week, between 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. during the school term.

Residents of any county actively interested in agriculture, who shall provide $500 to help pay the expenses of a county agent, may require the county to provide $1,500 a year toward his expenses and salary, and the state to pay not more than $1,000 a year, toward one-half of the agent's salary. Purdue university is to appoint the agent, annually, with the approval of the county board of education and the state board of education.

The act does not provide what the salary of such a county agent shall be, nor who shall fix it, but implies that it shall be not more than $2,000 a year, with $1,000 additional for expenses. Not more than thirty counties the first year (ending September 30, 1914), and not more than sixty counties the second year, shall be entitled to state aid. "It shall be the duty of such agent, under the supervision of Purdue University, to co-operate with farmers' institutes, farmers' clubs and other organizations, conduct practical farm demonstrations, boys' and girls' clubs and contest work, and other movements for the advancement of agriculture and country life and to give advice to farmers on practical farm problems, and aid the county superintendent of schools and the teachers in giving practical education in agriculture and domestic science."

Section 14 provides that the state shall "pay annually to school cities, towns and townships maintaining such schools and departments an amount equal to two-thirds of the sum expended for instruction in vocational and technical subjects authorized and approved by the state board of education. Such cost shall consist of the total amount raised by local taxation and expended for the teachers of approved vocational and technical subjects. School cities, towns and townships that have paid claims for tuition in approved vocational schools shall be reimbursed by the state as provided by this act, to the extent of one-half of the sums expended by such school cities and towns and townships in payment of such claims." No explanation is given of what the foregoing quotation means.

A state levy of 1 cent on each $100 is made for a fund to pay for vocational education, as provided by this act.

The act does not declare an emergency. Its provisions for state aid are to take effect at the beginning of the school year of 1914-1915.

Kenneth, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Oristadt, was admitted to the Schneek hospital Thursday evening, and underwent a serious operation. The patient is reported to be doing nicely.

Car Inspector Morris of the B. & O. S-W., who was so seriously injured Saturday in an accident at Cochran, is still quite sick. He was on a west-bound freight and went to jump off and was thrown to the ground, his head striking the slowly moving train. His nose was almost torn off and it required thirteen stitches to sew it back and there were also deep, ugly gashes cut on the sides of the head, and arm and leg. Mr. Morris is well known among the railroad men in Seymour.

138 YEARS AGO TODAY.

One hundred and thirty-eight years ago today Paul Revere took the famous ride that linked his name forever with the heroes of American Revolutionary history.

A lone man on horseback stirred up a whole country side—"every Middlesex village and farm," as we are told.

If newspapers had been more generally circulated the Middlesex folks would have known all about the movements of the king's troops. They would have been prepared for the news that Revere might have sent over the 'phone to ten times as many in one-tenth the time.

In every corner of this great country people know what's going on in all other corners through the medium of the daily newspaper.

And the newspaper is the medium that the business world employs to bring together buyer and seller.

When you read the advertisements in THE REPUBLICAN remember that this department represents a distinct service to you. It is the means of communication between the reliable store and your home. Use it carefully and systematically.

HUSBAND AND WIFE BOTH SAVED FROM SUFFERING

I wish to tell you the good results myself and husband received from Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. About eleven years ago I had a severe attack of La Grippe and was confined to my bed about eight weeks under the doctor's care. He pronounced my case kidney trouble and rheumatism and not receiving the results from the doctor's treatment I should have received, I decided to try Swamp-Root. After taking several bottles of Swamp-Root I was able to get up and attend to my work. About a year later my husband was afflicted with a severe attack of kidney trouble and doctored for some time with the doctors and received no benefit. Knowing of the good I had received, he decided to try Swamp-Root. His condition was such that he was confined to his bed and words cannot tell how he suffered, but after taking Swamp-Root he was relieved so he could go on with his work without pain. I wish to heartily recommend Swamp-Root to all persons afflicted with kidney and bladder troubles and you may publish this letter if you wish.

Frivolity in Music.

London, April 18.—The Kaiser of Germany is said to be greatly shocked at the increasing tendency toward frivolity in music in the Fatherland. Fake music teachers, swindling advertisements and the general unhealthy conditions of the musical world, especially in Germany, were exposed at the first International Congress of Music Teachers which has just closed here. It is claimed that the prevailing epidemic of operetta music in the large cities is greatly responsible for the deterioration in musical taste. This has caused a consequent coarseness and vulgarity in music, even in the more intelligent middle class, where something better might be expected. The cultivation of the so-called lighter music, the operetta and moving pictures, finds approval, because all sorts of music written for today are forgotten tomorrow.

CORONER SEEKS CAUSE OF WRECK

brakeman said he gave the signal, but received no reply.

Chester C. Ferguson of Jeffersonville, the freight engineman, said he and the conductor left the engine in charge of the young fireman. He first learned of the accident when a brakeman ran into a telegraph station near by with the news.

Hughy Crabtree, Jeffersonville, head brakeman on the train, said he gave the signal to the fireman to stop the train. The fireman failed to heed or did not see the signal, he said.

Other witnesses were in the offices, but their evidence was only cumulative.

It was announced at the office of J. W. Conely, superintendent of the Pennsylvania in Indianapolis, yesterday afternoon that, although the wreck comes under the jurisdiction of the Louisville division, of which H. E. Newcomet of Louisville is superintendent, an investigation was being conducted through the local office.

In the absence of Superintendent Newcomet, who did not come to Indianapolis yesterday, officials declined to comment further on the situation. It is probable, however, that the entire crew of the freight train will be dismissed because of the wreck. Members of the Railroad Commission of Indiana have visited the scene of the wreck and made preparations for conducting an investigation. The time for a hearing will be fixed later.

HAD NO TIME TO ESCAPE

Guests of Hotel Caught When Firetrap Burns.

Malone, N. Y., April 18.—Seven persons were burned to death and fifteen others were seriously injured when fire destroyed the De Wilson hotel here. Caught in their beds, thirty or more guests were shut off from escape as the flames shot up the stairways. Several women jumped from the third floor.

The fire started with an explosion, the cause of which is unknown. It ate up the old three-story wooden building almost as if it were paper.

Some of the guests were overcome in hallways and some in their rooms. Firemen managed to save several persons by getting them out of the windows, but there was little time for rescue work.

ANOTHER FRUITLESS BALLOT

Daughters of Revolution Have Difficulty Electing a President.

Washington, April 18.—Another fruitless ballot by the Daughters of the American Revolution for president general resulted in Mrs. William C. Story of New York city, making a gain of eighteen votes over her count of the first ballot, concluding with 574. Mrs. John Miller Horton of Buffalo gained twenty-three votes, finishing second with 542. Necessary to a choice, 599. Mrs. Charles B. Bryan of Memphis, Tenn., lost sixty-one votes from her original lot. Another ballot is being taken today.

HUGE STRIKE IS GROWING

Belgian Socialists Keep Their Protest Within Orderly Bounds.

Brussels, April 18.—The number of the strikers has increased, but apparently not to a great extent. There has been no disturbance of the peace and calmness and order continue. Vandervelde and his Socialistic colleagues have earned the admiration of the public owing to their successful efforts to maintain order. They opposed the strike as long as they could, but when they were outvoted they devoted all their efforts to prevent violence. The only disturbance has been at some small towns near Liege. The cavalry charged the crowd, but no body was hurt.

WIDOW RECOVERS DAMAGES

Saloonist's Bondsmen Must Pay For Death of a Customer.

Mt. Vernon, Ind., April 18.—A damage suit of unusual interest was decided in circuit court here when the suit against a company which is on the bond of James White, a saloon keeper at New Harmony, returned a verdict in favor of Mrs. Edward Huff for $3,500. Huff, it is alleged, went to New Harmony and became intoxicated and while in that condition White sold him liquor. On his way home Huff's team ran away and, it is supposed, kicked him in the head, causing injuries from which he died.

MAY SEND CHILDREN AWAY

Paterson Mill Strikers' Families Reduced to Desperate Straits.

Paterson, N. J., April 18.—The police receive many calls to put down rioting in the silk mill strike. One man is dying, shot through the back, the strikers say, while standing on his stoop, by a bullet fired by a private detective employed by a mill owner. Some 300 families are in such desperate straits that the proposal to send away the strikers' children, as was done in the Lawrence strike, was discussed at a meeting here last night and will be decided tonight.

Crushed Beneath Auto.

Richmond, Ind., April 18.—Miss Lillian Dean of Richmond was killed and Mrs. Ella Commons of Centerville slightly injured north of Richmond when Mrs. Commons's machine, driven by Miss Dean, skidded and went down a steep embankment. Miss Dean was crushed beneath the car, but Mrs. Commons was thrown out and escaped with only slight injuries.

Balloon Exploded in Mid-Air.

Villiers-sur-Marne, France, April 18.—Three French military officers were killed and two other persons were seriously injured when a military balloon exploded in mid-air over this place. Five persons were on board at the time.

Body Was Cut in Two.

Indianapolis, April 18.—The body of Louis Shanabarger of Peru, a Lake Erie & Western engineman, was found on the tracks north of Liberty street, where the engineman apparently had been run down by a passing locomotive. The body was cut in two at the waist. Shanabarger had gone to the East street yards to prepare for a trip, and it is believed a passing locomotive ran him down.

NEWSY PARAGRAPHS.

William Dailey was here from Brownstown this afternoon.

Mrs. Mary Steele, who has been sick for several days, continues to improve.

Miss Mary Heaton, one of the trimmers in the millinery department at the Gold Mine, spent last evening at her home in Hayden.

Arthur Blue was arrested for intoxication and this morning pleaded guilty and was fined $1 and costs by Justice of Peace, John Congdon. The fine and costs were paid.

The members of the local I. O. O. F. will observe the ninety-fourth anniversary of Odd Fellowship, Wednesday, April 30, in their hall. An invitation will be extended to the families and friends of the order.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Adam Fox, were conducted from the Christian church at Reddington this afternoon and it was one of the largest ever held there. The services were in charge of Rev. L. A. Peck.

John Gossett, who met with an accident a few days ago at Vallonia, is improving at the city hospital. He was stepping from a moving train when he slipped and his left foot was so badly crushed that it was necessary to amputate it.

The Woodstock school closed this afternoon for the summer vacation. A program was given by the pupils and quite a number of the parents and friends were present. The new building for this school was built last fall by Trustee Frank Lemp, of Redding township.

Mrs. Manuel Fleener and children, of Cougar, Wash., who have been visiting friends and relatives in this and Washington counties during the winter, were here today to spend the day with her brother-in-law, Fred Hopkins and wife. They will leave in a short time for their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Kline, of Bedford, had an exciting experience a few days ago while driving along a flooded highway near Medora. They were not familiar with the road and plunged over a bank at the side of the highway. They were thrown into the water, but were assisted to safety by persons who were near at the time. They had been to Indianapolis to purchase a pony and were driving home.

So much mail accumulated in Mitchell at the junction of the Monon and Baltimore & Ohio railways that several postal clerks were sent there and an office was fitted up. One day there were two carloads some of which were damaged. The B. & O. is running one train a day from Washington to Mitchell and return and expects in one week to get into Seymour. The Monon has placed an embargo against all freight and is giving attention to provision trains from Chicago to Louisville.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

WEDDING SATURDAY.

Forest Hutton, of this city, and Miss Helen Campbell, of Bloomington, will be united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Campbell is a graduate of Indiana University and is a popular young lady at Bloomington. Mr. Hutton, formerly resided at Bloomington, but came here several weeks ago and is in the employ of J. A. Quinn & Company. They will reside in this city on Homestead avenue.

ALL WANT KING AND QUEEN

State Visits Postponed Because of Political Situation.

London, April 17.—The decision of King George and Queen Mary not to make a series of state visits this spring and summer has caused great disappointment throughout the courts of Europe, according to advices received here daily. It has been decided to make the visit to Germany next month to attend the wedding of Princess Louise, daughter of the Kaiser and Kaiserin, a private affair. Although little information has been given out on the subject, it is stated that King George and his advisers consider the political situation too tender to visit only one sovereign without giving offense to the others, while a visit to all the courts which have invited them would be inconvenient.

There is a suggestion that these state visits are being abolished owing to the great cost to the sovereigns and that in future the exchange of visits will be made in more informal fashion.

AFTER SICKNESS

How to Recover Strength.

So many people are asking how to recover their strength after severe sickness that we are publishing this information for their benefit.

After grippe, pleurisy, pneumonia or any illness, what you need is new strength and better blood.

The most certain way to get this is by taking Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation (without oil). It creates strength, improves the blood, sharpens the appetite and restores the entire system to a healthy robust condition.

Mrs. Alice Mill of Newtown, N. C., says: "I had a very severe attack of grippe which confined me to my bed for several weeks. After I was able to sit up, I felt weak, tired and worn out for a long time. A friend advised me to try Vinol and before I had taken one bottle I was entirely relieved of that tired, worn out feeling which usually follows grippe and I had regained my strength and felt well again."

Try a bottle of Vinol. Your money will be returned if it does not restore your vitality and strength. The Andrews Drug Co., Seymour, Ind.

P. S. If you have Eczema try our Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.

Popular Mechanics for May.

The number of illustrations in the May Popular Mechanics Magazine exceeds that of any previous issue in the history of the publication. It contains 393 pictures and 322 articles. Prominent among these is the first installment of a series of views portraying fully the four years of a cadet's life at West Point. The 22 pictures in the May magazine show the work of the first summer at the school.

Several recent bridge-engineering feats are described in the May number. Two, shown in a group of views were erected by what is known as the end-launching method, which consists of floating one end of the completed span across the river on a barge, with the inner end mounted on railroad trucks. Another interesting bridge is a single-leaf bascule, claimed to be the largest of its type, which extends across the Calumet River, at South Chicago.

For Burns, Bruises and Sores

The quickest and surest cure for burns, bruises, sores, inflammation and all skin diseases is Bucklen's Arnica Salve. In four days it cured L. H. Hadlin, of Iredell, Tex., of a sore on his ankle which pained him so he could hardly walk. Should be in every house. Only 25c. Recommended by The Andrews Drug Co., Seymour, Ind.

Dinner For Mayor Gaynor.

New York, April 18.—A dinner will be given at the Waldorf-Astoria tonight in honor of Mayor Gaynor, ex-Mayor Seth Low, William R. Wilcox and members of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment and the Public Service Commission for their action in approving the contracts for the dual subway system, negotiations for which almost caused the disruption of the city government several weeks ago.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

Sold by all druggists, 75c.

SUFFRAGETTE QUESTION

Important Problem for the Government to Settle.

London, April 18.—What shall England do with the suffragettes? This is one of the most important questions for the government to settle, and the men who are guiding the destinies of the country realize it. They have come to the conclusion that imprisoning the offending advocates of votes for women is not proving effectual, so that other measures have to be taken. As applied to a resisting jailed suffragette forcible feeding is practically indistinguishable from torture. It is therefore, almost the exact opposite to what criminal punishment should be. Its deterrent effect is little while it causes great suffering to the prisoner. The government has been advised now to empower the courts to sentence the law-offending suffragettes to deportation to some more or less distant island, and once there, leave them at large, only preventing them from returning to England.

Food and lodging would be offered to them, but no compulsion would be put upon them to accept it. They would not be in any sense imprisoned or deprived of their liberty save in one respect mentioned. Government would be no more responsible for their health or well being than for that of any other inhabitant of the island.

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil.—Remove Them With New Prescription.

An eminent skin specialist recently discovered a new prescription, othine—double strength—which is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by your druggist under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee. Advertisement.

"FIRST DEFENDERS"

Celebrate 52nd Anniversary at Philadelphia Today.

Philadelphia, April 18.—Second in importance only to the Gettysburg encampment, so far as civil war veterans of this city are concerned, is the celebration which began today by members of Post No. 2 of the G. A. R., to mark the fifty-second anniversary of the visit of five companies of Pennsylvania soldiers to President Lincoln after he had issued a call for 100,000 men to defend the Union. The members of these companies are now known throughout the land as the "First Defenders." Coincident with the celebration a portrait of Rear Admiral Charles E. Clark of battleship Oregon fame will be presented to the Post. Admiral Clark has been a member of Post No. 2 for over 20 years.

Coughs and Consumption.

Coughs and colds, when neglected, always lead to serious trouble of the lungs. The wisest thing to do when you have a cold that troubles you is to get a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. You will get relief from the first dose, and finally the cough will disappear. O. H. Brown, of Muscadine, Ala., writes: "My wife was down in bed with an obstinate cough, and I honestly believe that had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery, she would not be living today." Known for forty-three years as the best remedy for coughs and colds. Price 50c and $1.00. Recommended by The Andrews Drug Co., Seymour, Ind.

We do "Printing that Pleases."

WORK OF POPE TOO HEAVY

Vatican Authorities Believe Certain Rules Should be Changed.

London, April 18.—The Vatican authorities have become convinced that certain rules must be changed if the life of any Pope is not to be shortened. No ruler of whatever country has greater tasks to perform than the man who lives isolated within the walls of the Holy City no matter how many attendants, clerks, secretaries, etc., there are to assist him. In the ordinary run of events the Pope received 50,000 people in audiences every year. This does not include private and collective pilgrims. In addition to these there are audiences relative to the government and administration of the Church with the Secretary of State and the majordomo every day and with the secretary of the Consistorial Congregation and the Cardinal Vicar of Rome every week. There are also audiences with the Prefects of Congregations once or twice a month and with the Secretaries of Briefs and Latin Letters, the Almoner and other minor officials and prelates once or twice a week. He spends two hours every morning with his private secretary in going over his correspondence.

Such a programme, it is declared, is too much for any human being and it is predicted that such restrictions will be made in future as will spare the occupant of the pontiff's chair from this strain to as great extent as possible.

MUST BELIEVE IT

When Well-Known Seymour People Tell It So Plainly.

When the public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Seymour the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every sufferer of kidney backache, every man, woman or child with kidney trouble will do well to read the following:

Mrs. H. M. Wible, 35 Booth St., Seymour, Ind., says: "I suffered almost constantly from kidney trouble. I had a sharp pain through the small of my back and it gradually grew worse until my health was undermined. Doctors did not help me and I was almost ready to give up in despair when I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. This preparation benefited me at once and continued use removed the pains and corrected the trouble with the kidney secretions. Since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me, I have not had a serious recurrence of kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

SUFFRAGETTE DAMAGE

Is Latest Form of Damage Recognized by Insurance Companies.

London, April 17.—So great has been the damage done to property during the past month that it has been necessary to create a new form of insurance. "Damage by suffragettes" is the latest form of loss officially recognized by one of the big insurance companies which has included this in the list of accidents for which it guarantees indemnity. Many of the merchants and men in other lines of business, as well as owners of private residences are taking advantage of the new insurance clause.

Pains in the Stomach

If you continually complain of pains in the stomach, your liver or your kidneys are out of order. Neglect may lead to dropsy, kidney trouble, diabetes or Bright's disease. Thousands recommend Electric Bitters as the very best stomach and kidney medicine made. H. T. Alston, of Raleigh, N. C., who suffered with pain in the stomach and back, writes: "My kidneys were deranged and my liver did not work right. I suffered much, but Electric Bitters was recommended and I improved from the first dose. I feel now like a new man." It will improve you, too. Only 50c and $1.00. Recommended by The Andrews Drug Co., Seymour, Ind.

RAILROAD COMMISSION

Ready to Hear Answers of Officials in Investigation.

Washington, April 18.—The Interstate Commerce Commission is receiving information from all of the railroads of the country pertinent to the proposed extended investigation to be made by the commission. This information must be in the hands of the commissioners before April 20th. A long list of questions has been sent out to avoid the necessity of issuing subpoenas. The commission will hold hearings at many points.

Pity the Unpainted House!

Would you go out in the pouring rain wearing your best clothes if you had no protection such as an umbrella or raincoat? Not if you could help it, you say.

Yet some people expose expensive material to the elements without adequate protection. The building material in your house is expensive and should be protected. Otherwise it will be ruined as surely as the fine clothes you wouldn't wish to wear out in the rain.

Nobody Can Tell If You Darken Grey, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Druggist Says When Mixed With Sulphur Prevents Dandruff and Falling Hair.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, then left to age and carefully filtered will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of mess.

Some druggists make their own, but it isn't nearly so nice as "Wyeth's."

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur no one can tell, because it does it so naturally; so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Do this tonight and by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, after another application or two it will be restored to its natural color and be even more glossy, soft and luxuriant than ever.

Local druggists say they are selling lots of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur"; it surely helps folks appear years younger.

The New 1913 Rengo Belt Reducing Corsets

are beautiful examples of the scientific reduction of stout and medium figures.

No other corsets ever have or ever will have, the wonderful value that is represented in the great strength and wearing qualities of these new 1913 models. By their extra strength, their shapeliness will be retained long after other weaker corsets have stretched and gone to pieces.

The new models introduce abdominal reducing features strikingly simple, successful and comfortable. In addition to the famous Rengo Belt reinforcement over the abdomen, we have added this season special wide elastic webbing, which automatically reduces the excess flesh and gives an upward support that is most comforting to the wearer. This elastic webbing affords perfect freedom and particularly gives comfort in the sitting position.

All models are boned with double watch-spring steel and guaranteed not to rust.

Prices: $2, $3 & $5

CHAPTER VIII.

The Garments of Another.

"I DON'T like this, Dunwoody," he said, when they were out of earshot of the room. "What's going on here? I'm your friend, too, and we both know that I'm a gentleman, and you ought to be. I've helped you before, and I've held your secrets, but I don't go into the business of making any more secrets, d'ye see?"

"There aren't going to be any more, Jamieson," rejoined Dunwoody slowly. "I've got to keep hers. You needn't keep mine if you don't feel like it. Get her well, that's all. There is no place for her. As for me, as you know very well, there isn't any place anywhere for me."

The old doctor sighed. "Brace up to it, my son, but play the game fair. If it comes to a case of being kind to yourself or kind to a woman, why, take a gamble and try being kind to the woman."

Dunwoody for the time left him and began moodily to pace apart, up and down the gallery. Here presently he was approached by Jeanne, the maid. "Madam will speak to you," announced that person loftily and turned away scornfully before he had time to reply.

Josephine pushed herself back against the head board of the bed, half supported by pillows. "Jeanne," she said, "go to the wardrobe yonder. Bring me what you find there. Wait," she added to Dunwoody. "I've something to show you, something to ask you."

Jeanne turned over her arm now the old and worn garments which Sally earlier had attempted to remove.

"What are these?" exclaimed Josephine. "Whose were they? You told me once you were alone here."

"I am," he answered. "Look! These are years old—years, years old."

"What are they? Whose were they?" "They are graveclothes," he said simply and looked her in the face. "Do you wish to know more?" "Is she—was she—is she out there?" He knew she meant to ask in the graveyard of the family. "Why do you wish to know?" he inquired quietly. "Is it because you are a woman?" "I am here because I am a woman well, then."

He looked at her, still silently, for a time. "She is dead," he said slowly. "Can't you let her lie dead?" "No. Is she out there? Tell me."

"No."

"Is she dead? Who was she?" "I have told you I am alone here. I have told you I've been alone all my life until you came. Isn't that enough?"

"Yes; you've said that, but that was not the truth."

"It depends upon what you mean by the truth."

"The man who could do what you have done with me would not stop at anything. How could I believe a word you said?" Then on the instant, much as she had cause to hate him, she saw a regretted her speech. She saw a swift flush spring to his cheek under the thin florid skin.

"That isn't just," he said quietly. "I wouldn't lie to you, not even to get you. If that's the way you feel about me I reckon there couldn't, after all, be much between us. I've got all the sins and faults of the world, but not just that one. I don't lie."

"Then tell me."

"No; you've not earned it. What would be the use if you didn't believe what I said?"

He held up the faded things before his eyes, turning them over calmly, looking at them directly, unshrinkingly. She could not read what was in his mind. Either he had courage or long accustomedness, she thought.

"I asked Sally," she half smiled. "Yes?"

"And I'll ask her again. I don't want—I can't have a room which belongs to another woman, which has belonged to another. I've not, all my life, been used to—that sort of place myself, you see."

"You are entitled to first place, madam, wherever you are. I don't know what you have been." He pointed to her own garments, which lay across a chair. "You don't know what she has been"—he indicated these that he held in his hand. "Very well. What could a mere liar, a coward, do to arrange an understanding between two women so mysterious? You are the first woman for me. Is it not enough?"

"I told Sally it might have been a sister, your mother."

"Dead long ago. Out there." He nodded to the window.

"Which?" she demanded.

He turned to her full now and put out a hand, touching the coverlid timidly almost. "You are ill," he said. "Your eyes shine. I know. It's the fever. It isn't any time now for you to talk. Besides, until you believe me I cannot talk with you any more. I've been a little rough, maybe. I don't know, but as God made this world, those trees, that sun yonder, I never said a word to you yet that wasn't true."

"Will you tell me all about it—about her, some time?"

"If you are going away, why should you ask that? If you are going to be nothing to me in all the world, what right have you to ask that of me? You would not have the right I've had in speaking to you as I have. That was right. It was the right of love. I love you! I don't care if all the world knows it. Let that girl there hear if she likes. I've said we belong together, and it seems truth to me, the very truth; yes, and the very right itself. But some way we hurt each other, don't we? Look at you, there, suffering. My fault. And I'd rather it had cost me a limb than to see you hurt that way. It cuts my heart. I can't rest over it. And you hurt me, too. I reckon, about as bad as anything can. Maybe you hurt me more than you know."

"You've not been much among women," she said. "You don't understand them."

"I don't reckon anybody does."

"Jeanne told me that she heard last night a child crying here in this house."

"Could it not have been a negro child?" He smiled at her, even as he stood under inquisition.

She noticed that his face now seemed pale. The bones of the cheeks stood out more now. He showed more gravity. Freed of his red fighting flush, the flame of passion gone out of his eyes, he seemed more dignified more of a man than had hitherto been apparent to her.

"No, no," cried out Jeanne. "Eet was no negaire child; not at all, never! I know those negaire voice! It was a voice white, madame, monsieur. Apparently it wept. Perhaps it had hunger."

A sort of grim uncovering of his teeth was Dunwoody's smile. He made no comment. His face was whiter than before.

"Whose child was it?" demanded Josephine. "Hers?"

"No."

"Yours?"

"No."

"Oh, well, I suppose it was some servant's, though the overseer, Jeanne says, lives across the fields there. And there would not be any negroes living here in the house in any case?"

"No."

"Was it—was it—yours?"

"I have no child. There will never be any for me in the world—except—under"—But now the flush came back into his face. Confused, he turned and gently laid down the faded silks across a chair back. He shook his head and walked out of the room.

Dunwoody joined Jamieson below, and the latter now called for his horse, the two walking together toward the door. They hardly had reached the gallery when there became audible the sound of hoof beats rapidly approaching up the road across the lawn. A party of four horsemen appeared, all riding hard.

"They look familiar," said Dunwoody. "That's Jones, and that's Judge Clayton, down below—why, I just left both of them on the boat the other day! It's Desha and Yates with them, from the other side of the county. There must be something up."

All four got down, shook hands with Dunwoody, gave their reins to servants and joined him on his invitation to enter. Jamieson was known to all of them.

Sunday School Lesson

SUNDAY, APRIL 20, 1913.

JACOB'S MEETING WITH ESAU

GOLDEN TEXT.—Be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, even as God also in Christ forgave you.—Eph. 4:32.

When Laban learned that Jacob had fled he pursued after him in anger, but God came to him in a dream by night and said unto him, "Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad" (xxxii, 24, 25), so they had only some sharp words and parted, having erected a heap of stones as a witness that neither would pass that place to do the other harm. Three different names are recorded as having been given to that witness, one of which is much used today (Mizpah), but surely much misunderstood (xxxii, 43-45).

Although no lesson has been assigned from chapter xxxii, the latter part of which is to me most profitable, the committee suggests the perusal of it, and surely no teacher will overlook it. How suggestive is the first verse, "And Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him!" Was ever such an unworthy man so wondrously cared for by God? He more than made up to him the loss of wages from Laban. He forbade Laban to harm him, and now, on his way to meet Esau, He sends a host of angels to still further assure him of heavenly protection, yet when he heard that Esau was coming to meet him he was greatly afraid and distressed (xxxii, 7). It would have been more honoring to God if he had said, "Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear" (Ps. xxvii, 3).

His prayer in verses 9 to 12 sounds well, most of it, for he acknowledges God's mercies and pleads His promises, but his plans following his prayer do look a little like his mother's plan of helping God out, though some might consider it showing his faith by his works. Yet the various droves of flocks and herds with which he hoped to appease Esau (verse 20) hardly look like faith working fearlessly.

The incident of xxxii, 24-31, also looks as if there was a great deal of Jacob instead of the Lord in the whole plan. It is with us all, as it was with him, most difficult to put off our shoes, as both Moses and Joshua were told to do, and let the Lord manage all in His own way. Yet the Lord is ever leading us to this that He may bless and use us more and more. This is a much abused story and is made by many to teach that Jacob prevailed by wrestling, but careful attention to the record will show that the Lord wrestled with Jacob to subdue him. He resisted until his thigh was put out of joint, and then in conscious weakness he clung to the Mighty One, saying, "I will not let Thee go except Thou bless me," so it was weakness clinging to strength that prevailed. "By his strength he had power with God—yea, he had power over the angel and prevailed" (Hos. xii, 3, 4). His conscious weakness was the secret of his power, even as the Lord said to Paul, "My strength is made perfect in weakness" (II Cor. xii, 9).

It was then that Jacob's name was changed to Israel, a name applied to him personally about fifty times and to his descendants 2,500 times. Jacob called the name of the place "Pentecost," face of God, for he realized that he had been face to face with God, Him whom we know as the Son of God, for "no man hath seen God at any time, the only begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, He hath declared Him" (John i, 18). He did not tell Jacob His name, but He did say to Manasse, the father of Samson, "It is wonderful" (Judg. xiii, 18). Jacob evidently did not expect that Esau would meet him peacefully and cordially and therefore took all possible care to provide for the safety of his household, putting the most loved ones hindermost and the handmaids and their children foremost, preceded by the various droves, saying, "If Esau come to the one company and smite it then the other company which is left shall escape" (xxxii, 8; xxxiii, 1, 2).

After all Jacob's fears (for he remembered well his wrong done to his brother twenty years before and the anger from which he had fled) how beautiful it is to read that "Esau ran to meet him and embraced him, and fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept" (xxxiii, 4).

Thus God has many surprises for us when our fears are rebuked and we find forgiveness and peace and joy where the devil had told us we would find only trouble. There is forgiveness with the Lord for all who turn to Him, and He does abundantly pardon.

He, through Joseph, forgave all those cruel brethren. When first He met His disciples after they had all forsaken Him and fled He said: "Peace be unto you * * * Why are ye troubled?" (Lu. xxiv, 36, 38.) Note carefully all the brotherly kindness of this chapter and think of Him who sticketh closer than a brother. In verses 9, 11, we note that when Esau did not wish to accept Jacob's gifts he said, "I have enough, my brother," and when Jacob pressed them upon him he also said, "I have enough." The expressions are different, however, and in Young's translation the former is, "I have abundance," and Jacob said, "I have all things." Jacob's word has a larger significance than Esau's.

Will Send Them Back Home.

Washington, April 18.—The 500 Mexican and Indian soldiers held by United States troops on the Mexican border will be turned back into Mexico at once. This decision was reached by Secretaries Bryan and Garrison in conference. The arms of these prisoners have been taken from them and they will be turned back into Mexico free to go where they please.

For Bright Eyes and Clear Nose

Remarkable Catarrh Cure That Gets Right into the Affected Parts and Stops Gatherings.

S. S. S. is a Wonder for the Eyes, Nose and Throat.

It is definitely known that catarrh can be cured by the simple process of inoculating the blood with antitoxin remedies that stop inflammatory conditions throughout the mucous linings of all the organs of the body. This is done with the famous Swift's Sure Specific, or, as it is widely known, S. S. S. It is taken into the blood just as naturally as the most nourishing food. It spreads its influence over every organ in the body, through all the veins and arteries, and enables all mucous surfaces to exchange inflammatory acids and other irritating substances for arterial elements that effectually cleanse the system and thus put an end to all catarrhal pollution. S. S. S. cleans out the stomach of mucous accumulations, enables only pure, blood-making materials to enter the intestines, combines with these food elements to enter the circulation, and in less than an hour is at work throughout the body in the process of purification.

You will soon realize its wonderful influence by the absence of headache, a decided clearing of the air passages, a steadily improved nasal condition, and a sense of bodily relief that proves how completely catarrh often infests the entire system. You will find S. S. S. on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 per bottle. It is a remarkable remedy for any and all blood affections, such as eczema, rash, lupus, tetter, psoriasis, boils, and all other diseased conditions of the blood. For special advice on any blood disease write in confidence to The Swift Specific Co., 137 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Do not delay to get a bottle of S. S. S. of your druggist.
